

Col Anthone R. Wright Named MCICOM's New Chief of Staff

Starting his new position as MCICOM's chief of staff is Colonel Anthone R. Wright, a 26-year veteran of the Corps and most recently commanding officer for Combat Logistics Regiment 35, 3rd Logistics Group, Okinawa, Japan. Col Wright assumed his new duties as chief of staff on August 12 and reports to MajGen Juan Ayala, Commander, MCICOM.

Col Wright – a 1988 graduate of the United State Naval Academy – has held numerous positions of increasing responsibility, primarily focused on Marine Corps Aviation and aviation logistics. Prior to his command of Combat Logistics Regiment 35, Wright was Assistant Chief of Staff , Aviation Logistics Department for 3rd Marine Aircraft Wing.

Before this assignment, Colonel Wright attended the U.S. Army War College, graduating in 2010 and then assigned to the Office of the Assistant Secretary of Defense for Networks and Information Integration and the Department of Defense Chief Information Officers as a Senior Military Assistant.

Among Colonel Wright's decorations are the Defense Superior Service Medal, Bronze Star, Legion of Merit, Meritorious Service Medal with one gold star, Navy and Marine Corps Commendation Medal with gold star, Navy and Marine Corps Achievement Medal, National Defense Service Medal and the Humanitarian Service Medal. For his complete bio, visit:

<http://www.mcicom.marines.mil/Leaders/tabid/9638/Article/169039/colonel-anthone-r-wright.aspx>.

"I am very excited to be part of the MCICOM organization and to help in executing its important work for Marine Corps installations and the Marines, Marine families and civilians that live and work on them. There are many challenges and opportunities ahead of us as we work to support the readiness of our MAGTFs in the most efficient and effective way possible while at the same time adjusting to a small force and reduced budgets."